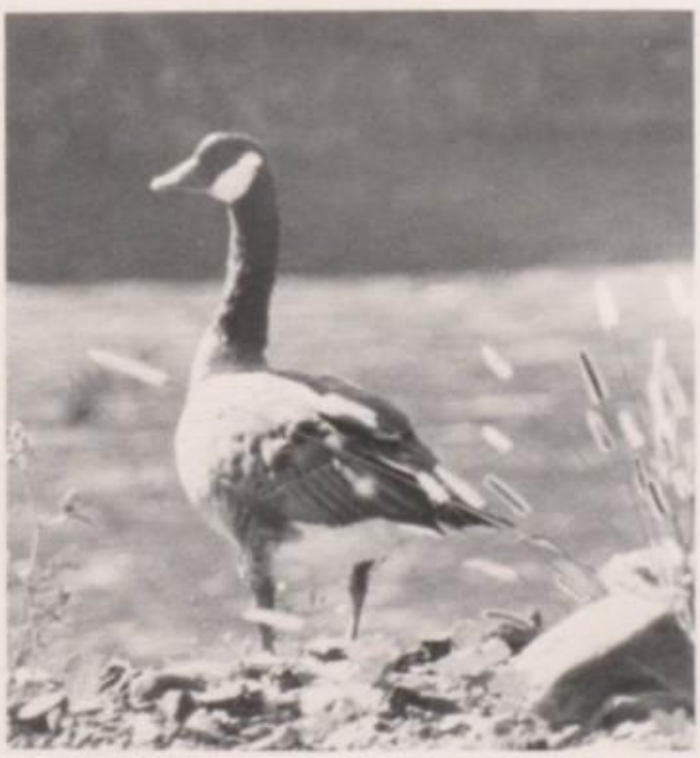
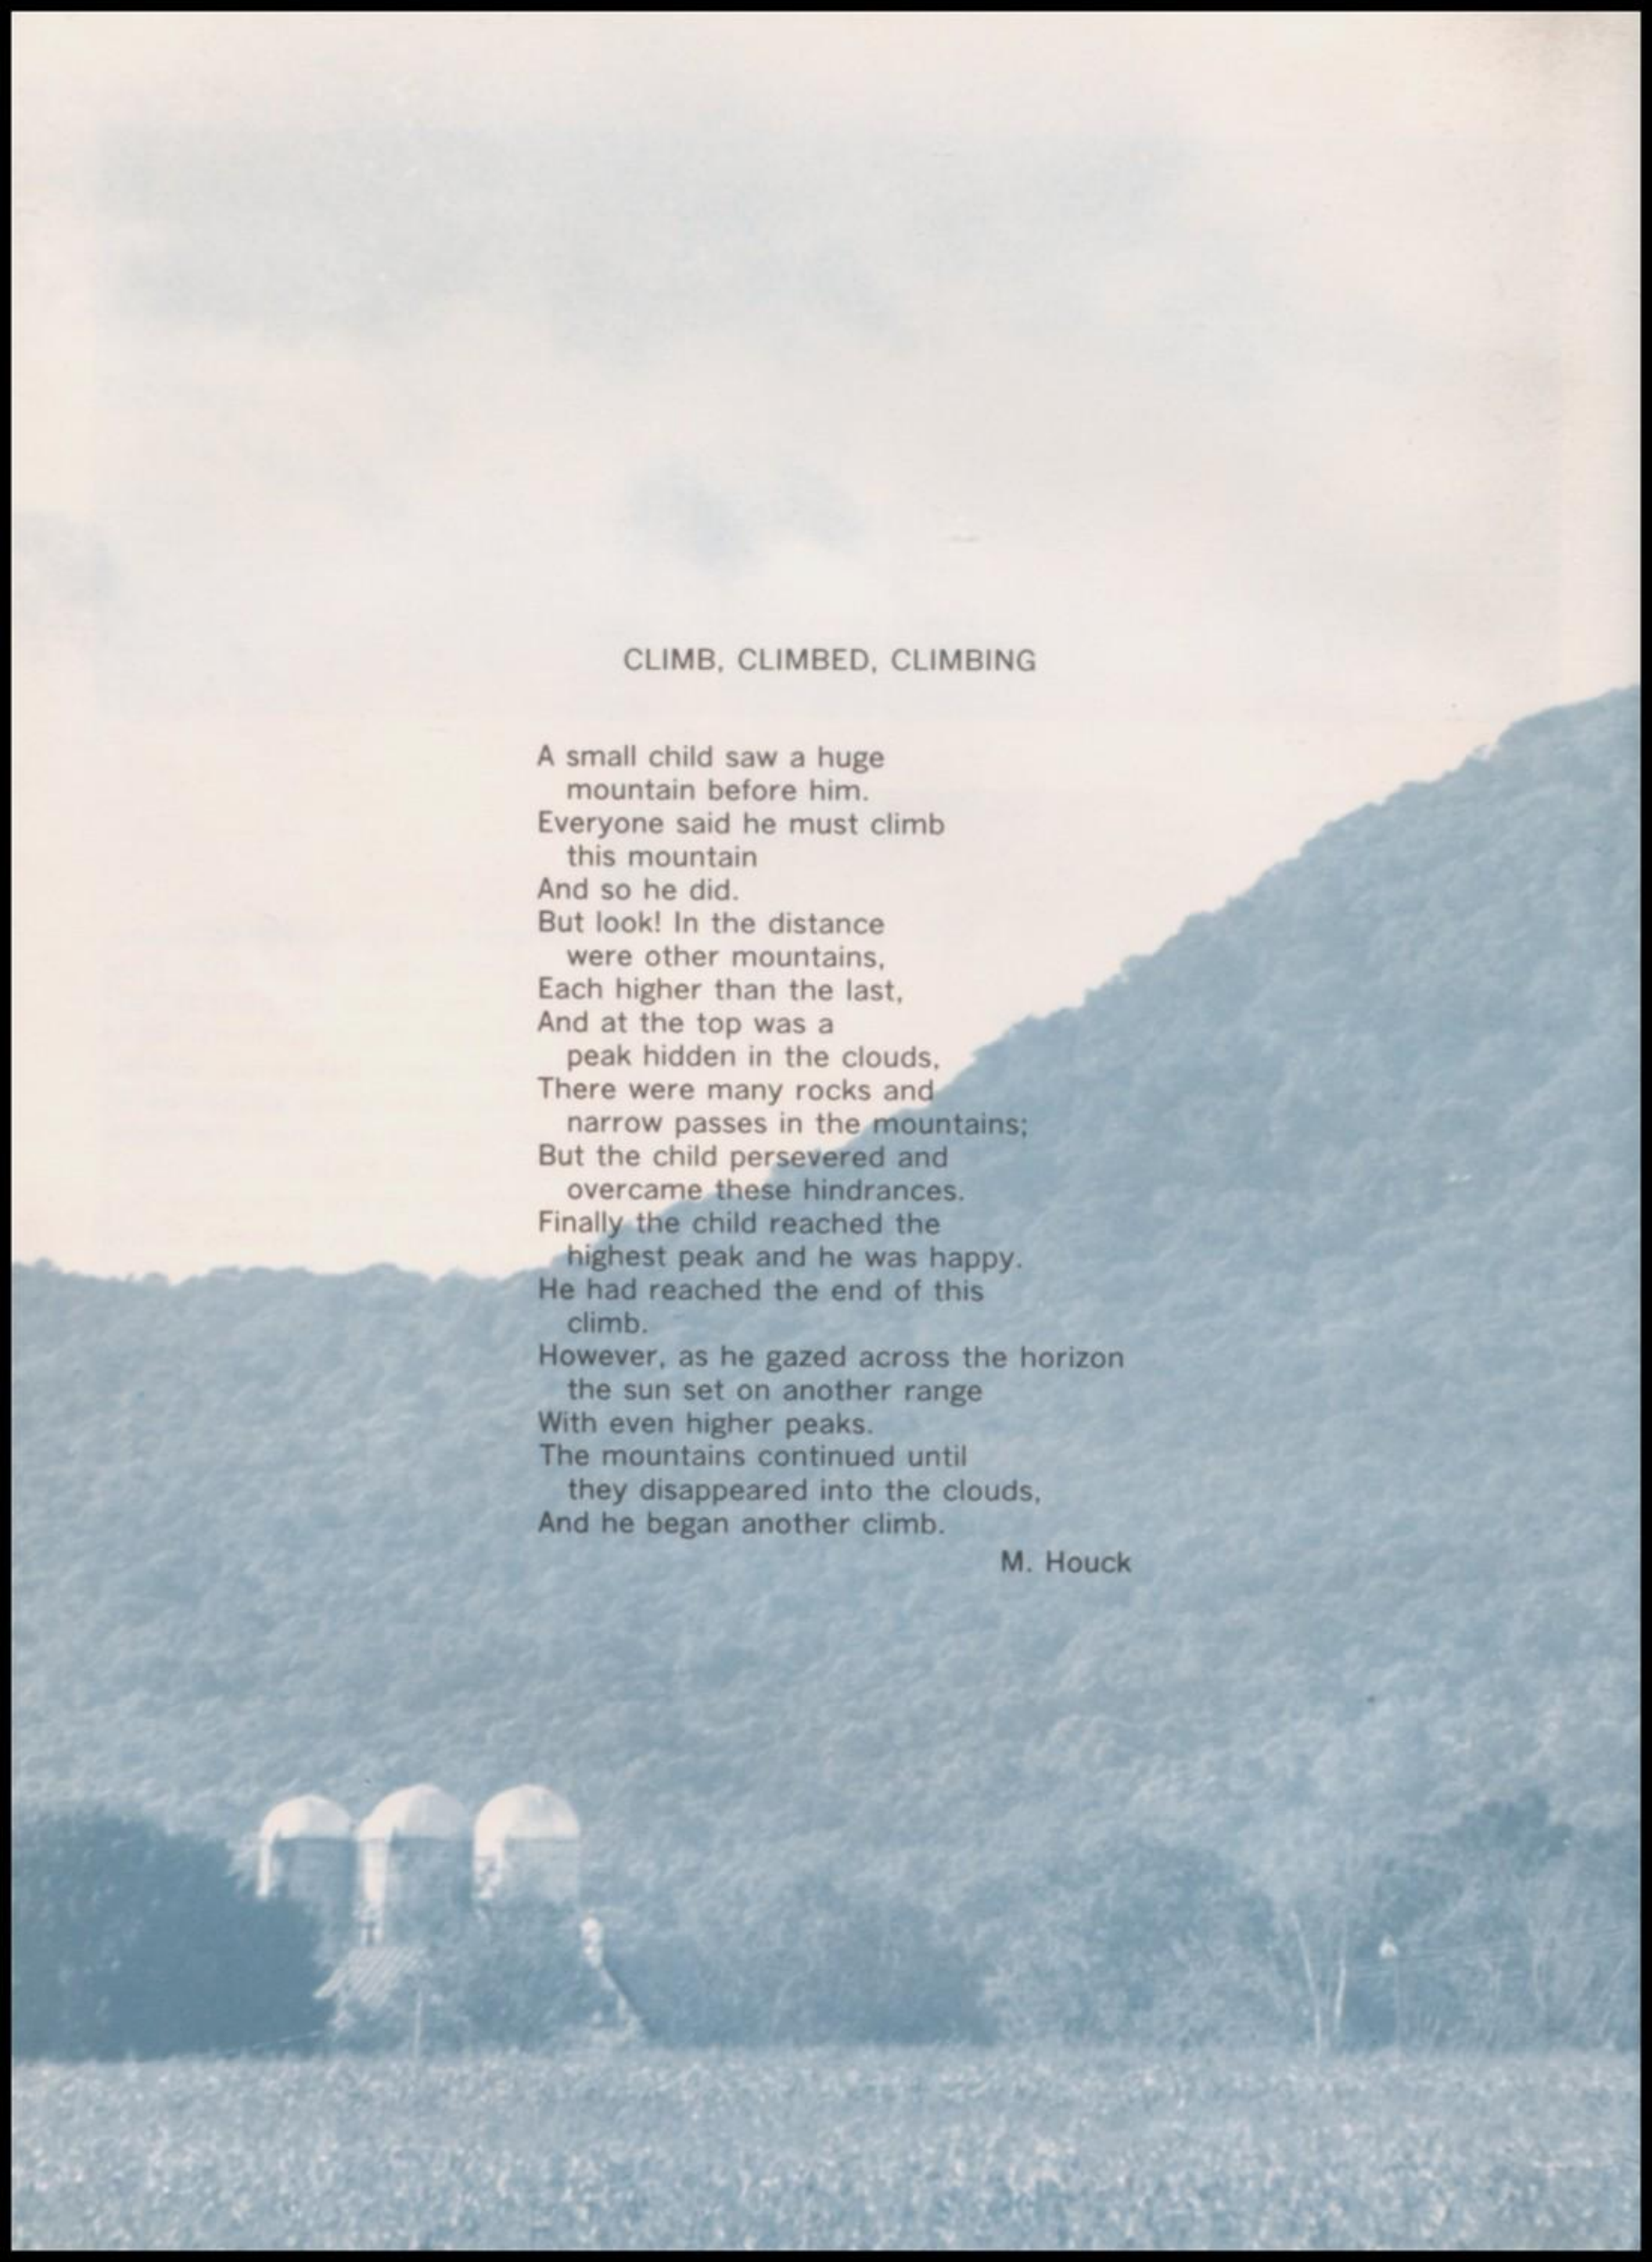
Encompassed by rolling farmland, small communities, and the Blue Mountain, we chose to portray our theme through the mountains. As a new decade opens before us, we are approaching unknown vistas as a mountain climber reaches the peak and looks onward. Each of us is experiencing a climax in our education, but when we attain this summit many more mountains will appear in our paths of the future.





CLIMB, CLIMBED, CLIMBING

A small child saw a huge mountain before him.
Everyone said he must climb
this mountain
And so he did.
But look! In the distance
were other mountains,
Each higher than the last,
And at the top was a peak hidden in the clouds,
There were many rocks and narrow passes in the mountains;
But the child persevered and overcame these hindrances.
Finally the child reached the highest peak and he was happy.
He had reached the end of this climb.
However, as he gazed across the horizon
the sun set on another range
With even higher peaks.
The mountains continued until they disappeared into the clouds,
And he began another climb.

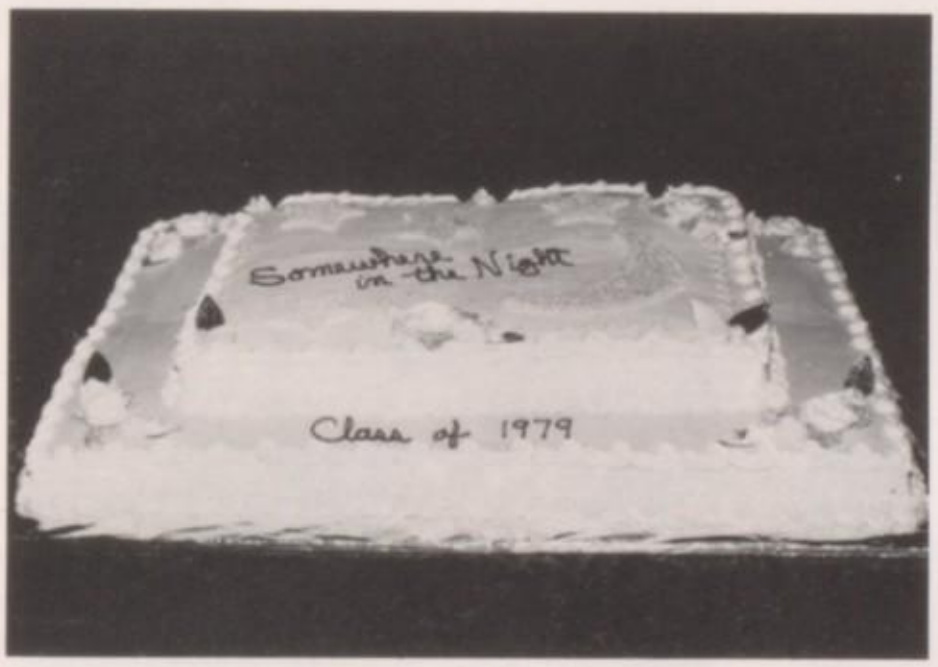
ACTIVITIES



DARDANIAN

Seated: Mr. Hoffman, K. Hoffert, A. Seiler, Miss Kline. First Row: J. Miller, J. Bashore, M. Krill, W. Pappas, N. Good, B. Schlegel, A. Bashore, P. Bicksler. Second Row: N. Boltz, T. Muir, A. Harrison, J. Bailey, A. Benfer, M. Houck. Third Row: D. Newman, B. Ruth, A. Goda, G. Riegel, E. Schoener, D. Berger.

Advisors: Mr. Hoffman and Miss Kline.

Mr. Hoffman makes a point.

Artists: Angel Benfer and Dennis Berger.

Business Managers: Marilyn Krill and Nancy Good.

Editors: Karen Hoffert and Alane Seiler.

Now what do we do?

The DARDANIAN staff is responsible for producing a yearbook that highlights the school year. The yearbook records the various events each year to preserve, in a concrete form, the memories important to the students. The staff works together for many months to compile a book of present and long-lasting recollections.

Photographers: Eric Schoener and Glenn Riegel.

STUDENT AND EXECUTIVE COUNCILS

First Row: D. Donato, J. Fidler, A. Baker, C. Schneck. Second Row: S. Johnson, K. Bickel, P. Bicksler, N. Brown, L. Oakman, D. Evans, N. Lyon, M. Gottfried, Mrs. Eckton. Third Row: D. Bender, S. Graeff, G. Bashore, B. Boehmer, C. Shollenberger, S. Fidler, T. Davis, M. Kitchenoff.

Student Council consists of one person from each section of the four grades. Throughout the year they are busy organizing dances, Spirit Week, and pep rallies. One of their main accomplishments this year has been obtaining permission for the students to play music during the lunch periods.

Officers: N. Brown, Sec.; L. Oakman, Pres.; P. Bicksler, V. Pres.

Junior and Senior Executive councils are a group of class members representing each section. Executive councils assist the class officers in making important class decisions. The councils meet during the classes' large group each week to discuss ideas and resolve problems involving dances, sandwich sales, and class finances. The Junior Executive council's most demanding task is organizing the Prom, which is held each year in the spring, while the Senior Executive council is busy raising funds for the class trip.

Kneeling: D. Soliday. Standing: D. Martinez, R. Smith, A. Benfer, S. Steinhauer, D. Newman, K. Strickler.

HOMECOMING DANCE

A bonfire was featured before the dance.

Surprise!

The Student Council sponsored the Homecoming Dance which featured "Haywire." This was the first dance for the new school year. Lisa Oakman was crowned Homecoming Queen during the dance.

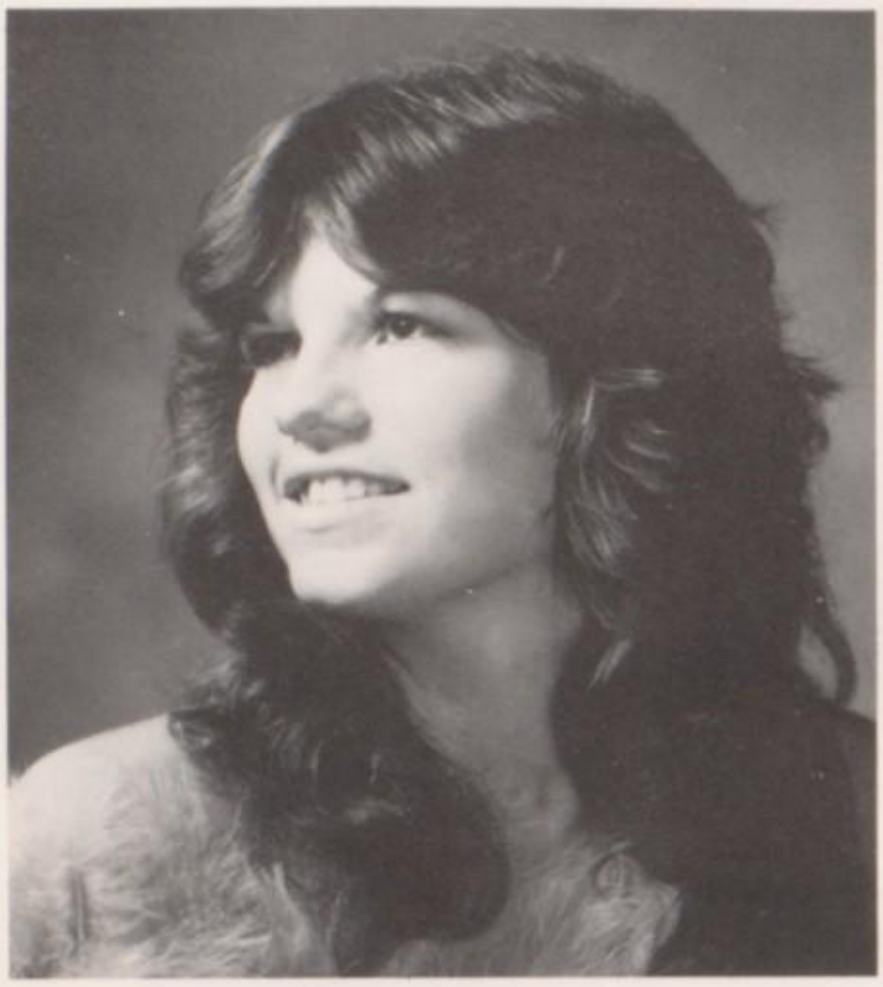
CHRISTMAS DANCE

Peek-a-boo

"AXE"

The senior class sponsored the Christmas Dance December 15, 1979, in the high school cafeteria. The theme of the dance was "Toys in the Attic." The decorations featured stuffed animals and toys on the shelves of the cafeteria. The highlight of the dance was the crowning of the Snow Queen, Roxanne Binner.

TULPEHOCKEN JUNIOR MISS



Tulpehocken's Junior Miss

Junior Miss Contenders, Rae Smith and Wanda Stamm.

What was being a Junior Miss all about? Junior Miss objectives are "to recognize, reward, and encourage excellence among all young people." First came preliminaries where a judge's interview determined a high school's representative among contenders. Next, all twenty of Berks County's Junior Misses got acquainted by attending various social functions. Last summer we miniature golfed, played the Reading Phillies' wives in a game of softball, and participated in a summer picnic swim party, and coke party. However, it was not all fun and games. We rehearsed on nine separate occasions. Dress rehearsal lasted into the early hours of the morning on the eve of the pageant. After rehearsal we accompanied our chaperones to a well-deserved rest. Pageant day finally arrived. Interviews took place and we all went to luncheon at the Glockenspiel restaurant. That evening the pageant began. This year's theme was "Space Odyssey." First came the "shotgun" during which we ran through the audience. Next was the sportswear competition. We danced robot-like to the theme songs from "Star Wars" and "Star Trek." Individual talents followed. I performed an original skit entitled "Move over Schultz," during which I drew my cartoon character "Mouse." The individual talent show was succeeded by the evening gown competition. In this event we sang and danced. The presentation of awards concluded the program. No one really lost because everyone left with nineteen more friends than they had before the competition. If I could turn back time, would I do it again? You bet!

HOSTESSES

Part of the hostesses' job is collecting offerings at musical programs.

Hostesses: Sitting: M. Orendo, A. Seiler. Standing: E. Kress, S. Wenrich, M. Houck.

Hostesses: A. Bashore, A. Goda, J. Miller, D. Newman, L. Oakman.

Mary welcomes everyone with a warm smile.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Are these the Hatfields or McCoys?

The senior class presented "Dark of the Moon" on March 30 and 31, 1979. The play is a fantasy which revolves around a witch boy who falls in love with a beautiful girl. The play leads to tragedy because of the ridicule of the townspeople for the marriage of the two.

"Repent sinner!"

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On Nov. 16 and 17, 1979, the Junior Class sponsored the children's classic "Hansel and Gretel," in musical form. The two leading roles were performed by freshmen, Kelly Flannery and Doug Bender. The play was directed by Mr. Ullrich.

The students at Vo-Tech are involved in three clubs: VICA (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America), DECA (Distributive Educational Clubs of America), and HOSA (Health Occupational Students of America). Randy Lehman, a THS student, is the president of VICA, the club for all shops. DECA is for the merchandising shop, and HOSA is for the health assistant shop. All three of the clubs are involved in competitions throughout the school year. The organizations also sponsor special events for the Vo-Tech students.

HOSA: L. Kramer, W. Stamm

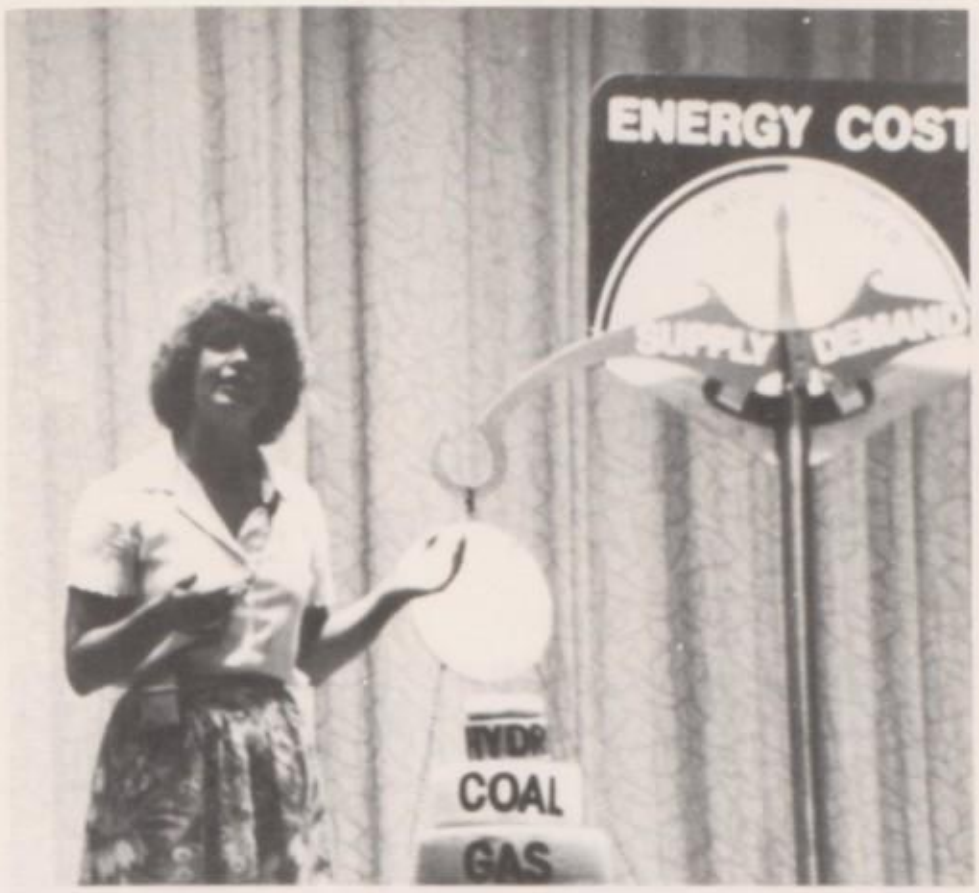
Library assistants are volunteers who, in their study periods, aid Mr. Bentz in the running of the library. The assistants help with carding books, replacing them on the shelves, and other various tasks in the library.

ASSEMBLIES



Low cost transportation

Kicking off the magazine campaign.

Neil and friends

Several assemblies were held for the enjoyment and education of the students. Assemblies covered a variety of subjects including energy, free enterprise, and magazine sales. In the latter Neil, a stuffed frog, was offered as a sales incentive.

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week consisted of special events allowing the students and teachers to demonstrate their cleverness and originality. Monday was blue and gold day; Tuesday, 50's day; Wednesday, hat day; Thursday, hobo day; and Friday was section day.

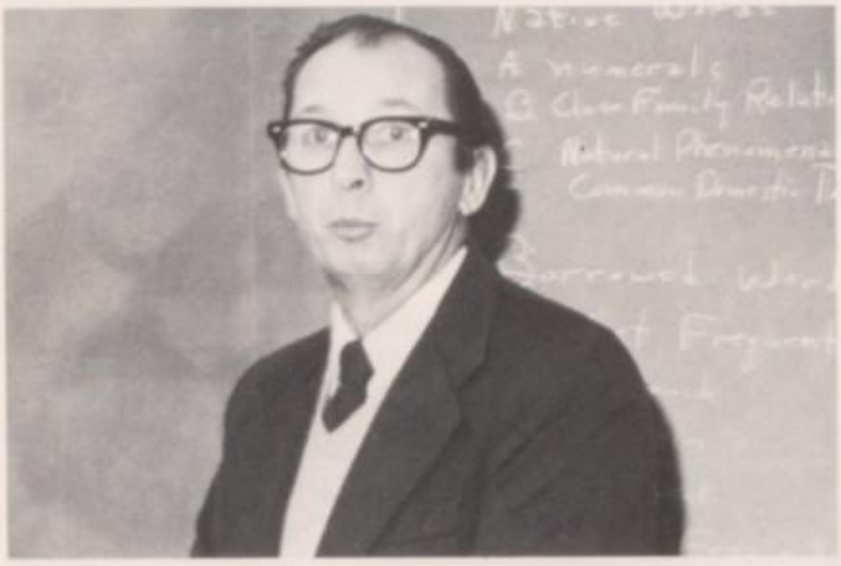
CURRICULA



SCHOOL BOARD AND ADMINISTRATION

Sitting: Jay Brown, Pres., Richard Ruth, V. Pres., Earl Schaeffer, Sec., Gerald Seiler, Treas. Standing: Eva Bross, Walter Focht, John Rausch, Orville Stauffer, Lynn Stoudt.

Mrs. Polk, the school's business manager, compares notes with Mr. Schaeffer, the School Board's secretary.

The School Board is an important part of the education system. It is responsibile for administering and regulating all the school's functions. Currently, a major issue of the board is the construction of a building at the Bethel Center.

Mr. Matthew, principal of THS, sees that the school is run efficiently.

Mr. Koenig, Superintendent

Mr. Wearne, Assistant Superintendent

Mrs. Himmelberger, Secretary

Mrs. Batz, Secretary

Mrs. Weaver, Secretary

Mrs. Keeney, Secretary

Mrs. Polk, Business Manager

The Administration seeks to keep the school working efficiently and successfully. Keeping the records, upholding school policy, and generally running the school smoothly are the main concerns of THS Administration.

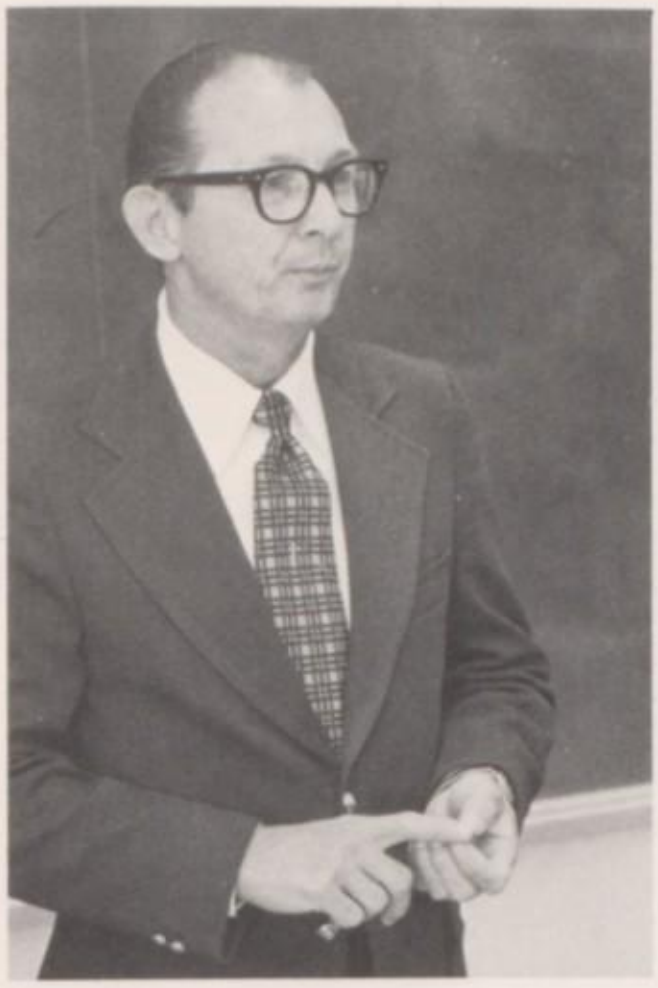
GUIDANCE

Mrs. Eckton is the guidance counselor at THS.

Whenever a student needs help, someone is available to provide valuable advice and assistance. Whether the need is information about careers or colleges, or assistance with a scholastic problem, the door to the guidance office is open. These needs are met through finding a student's qualifications, aptitudes, and interests and matching them with an appropriate area. No matter what a student's plans, the guidance office is always willing to help.

Afonso Cunha Serra Freire, an exchange student from Brazil, visited THS.

ENGLISH



Mr. Hoffman, twelfth grade English teacher.

Mrs. Deisher teaches English to ninth and tenth grade students.

Teaching students to communicate with others and understand them, whether it involves using the basics of grammar or reading a work of literature, is what English teachers are here for. THS has a strong English staff which teaches students these basic abilities.

Mr. Feaser teaches ninth and tenth grade English.

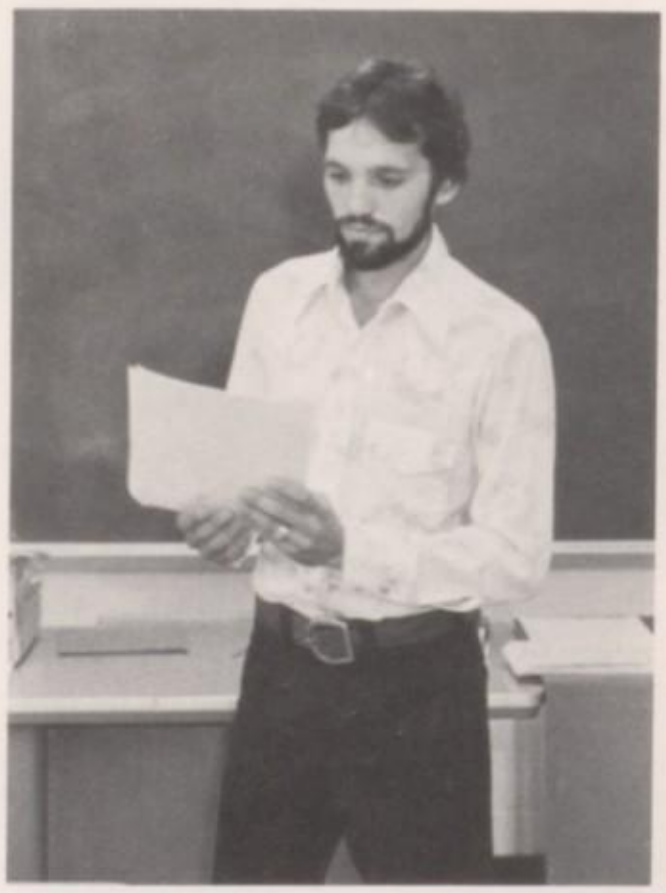
Mr. Hepner teaches eleventh grade English.

I know you believe you understand what you think I said.
But I'm not sure you realize that what you think you heard is not what I meant.

GERMAN AND SPANISH

Miss Ketner teaches German to THS students.

THS offers two languages, German and Spanish. These subjects involve much more than grammar and vocabulary; they also include pronunciation of the language and appreciation of the culture of that country. Spanish was reinstated to replace Latin. Mr. Pail joined the staff this year to teach both Spanish and German.

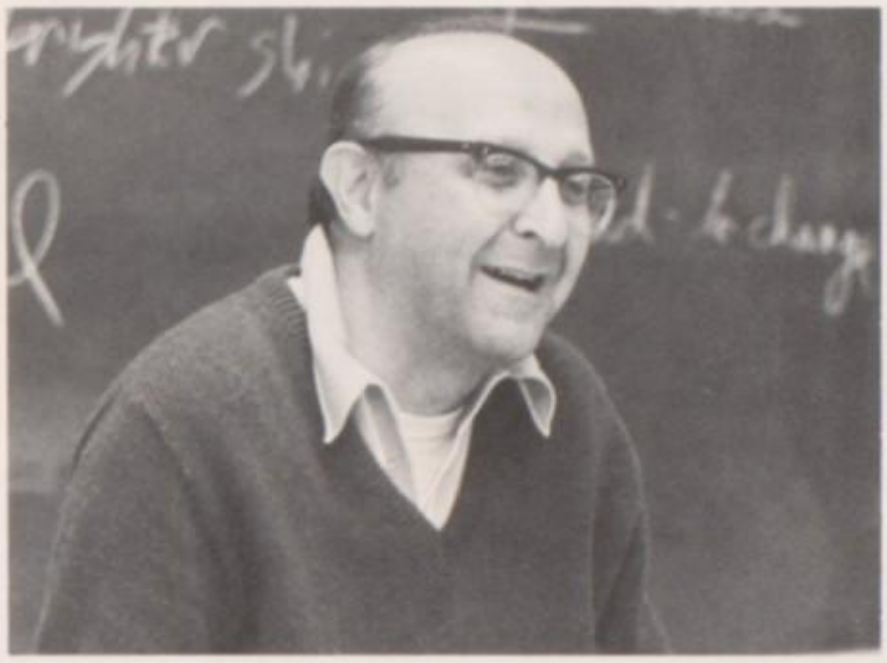


Mr. Pail teaches German and Spanish

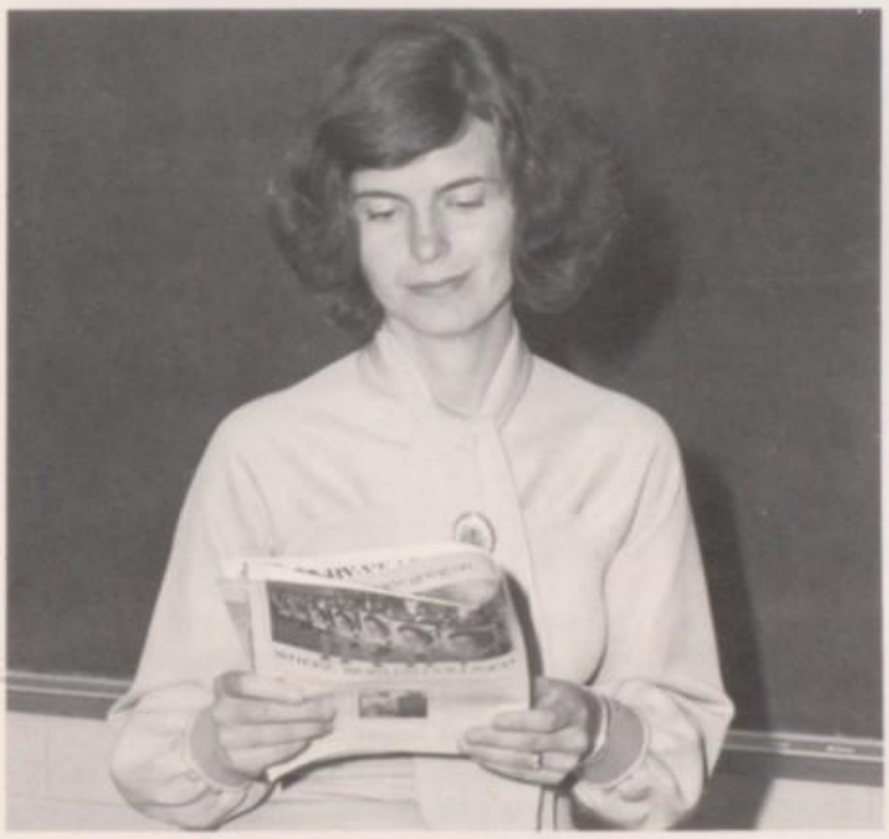
SOCIAL STUDIES

Learning about people and places and the events of history leads to a better understanding of life. THS gives students an excellent background in this area by offering such subjects as Civics, World Cultures, American History, and Problems of Democracy. These subjects teach students to be inquisitive and helpful in today's society.

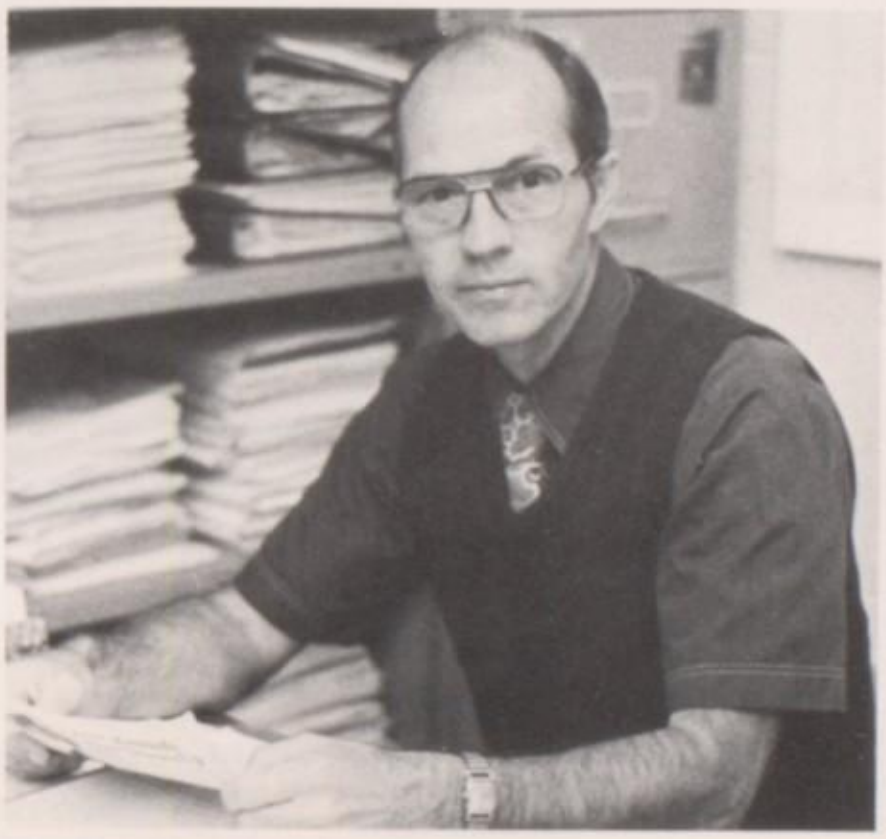
Mr. Schwartz teaches American History.



Mr. Scarpignato teaches Problems of Democracy and Sociology.



Mr. Althouse teaches Civics and World Cultures.



Mr. Wentling teaches Civics and World Cultures.

MATHEMATICS

Individualized instruction is part of Mr. Graeff's routine.

Mr. Crim constructs a unit circle in Trig.

Mrs. Leininger smiles as she corrects the last paper.

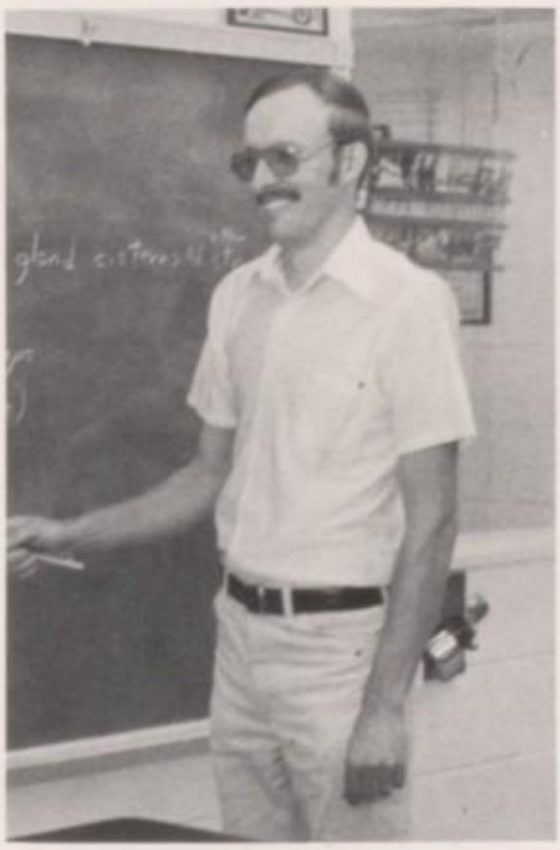
Mr. Rentschler explains a point to an unseen student.

Mathematics is a world of numbers and symbols. Learning the subject of mathematics helps students think more clearly and logically, a necessary trait in the world of today.

SCIENCE

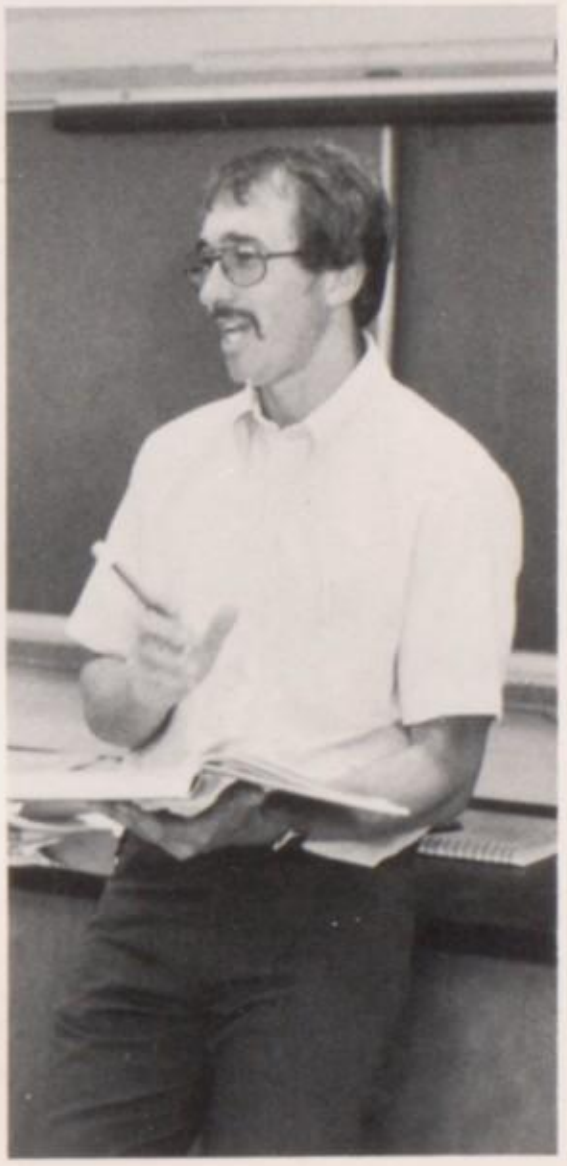
Mr. Rentschler assembles a ripple tank to use in a physics experiment.

Mr. Ferrence teaches earth science.



Mr. Kellner teaches animal science, crop science, and biology.

Mr. Ullrich tries to get the point across to biology students.



Mr. Winter instructs students in the earth sciences and chemistry.

Learning the basic principles of the universe is a necessity to understand life. This is why science is an important subject. Ranging from the theoretical to the practical, science can make a complex world comprehensible.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Business education teaches the skills which keep our economy running efficiently. Learning typing, bookkeeping, shorthand and transcription, office practice, and filing provide students with an understanding of how business works. During the senior year, students have the opportunity to work outside school in a co-op program.

Miss Kline teaches Accounting I & II, Typing I, and Business English.

Mrs. Felty teaches Shorthand I, Typing, Office Practice, Filing, Business Law, and Consumer Education.

Miss Wilhelm teaches Typing, Shorthand II, Business English, General Business, and Business Economics.

Miss Kline trying to become an actress.

HOME ECONOMICS

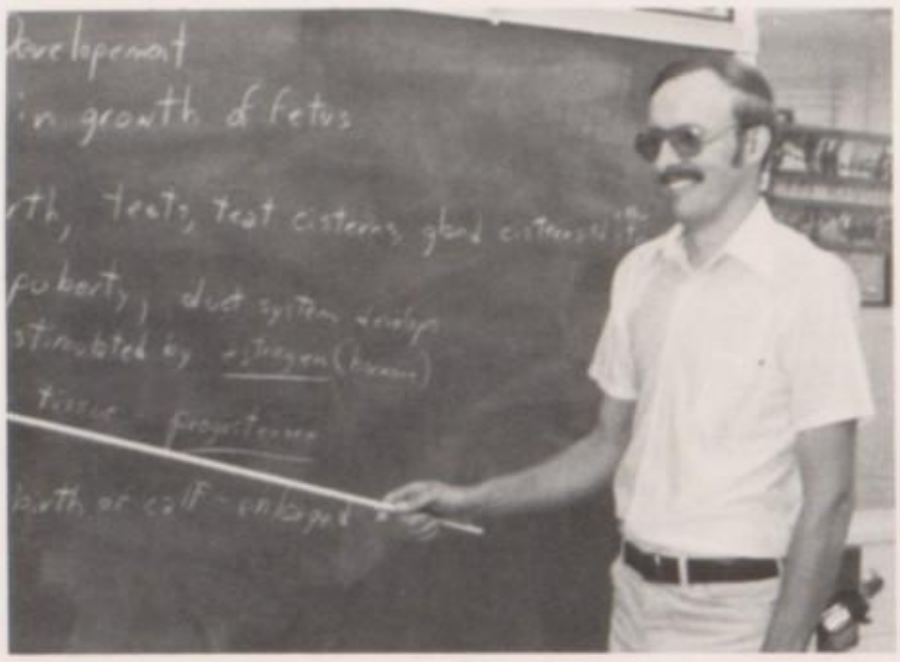
Make your stiches even.

Mrs. Blatt teaches home economics to grades nine through twelve.

Mrs. Martin teaches home economics to all grades.

All of the facets of home economics are aimed towards total home management. Learning practical skills such as sewing, cooking, and financial planning, as well as the more basic subjects: family relations, child development, and household management are all a part of the home economics program. Students leave school with many abilities necessary for successfully running a home.

AGRICULTURE



Mr. Kellner teaches Biology, Earth Science, Shop, and Agriculture. He also advises the FFA.

Agriculture teaches farming techniques. Students learn how to handle tractors and other farm equipment. They are also taught animal science. Horticulture is a twelfth grade elective that is quite popular with the senior class.

Mr. Orendo teaches Horticulture and Farm Mechanics classes. In addition, he advises the FFA club.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Mr. Scheirer, industrial arts teacher, is giving students some helpful instructions.

The students in industrial arts will soon be the backbone of industry. Training is centered around practical learning and understanding of mechanical principles. Many different courses are offered ranging from electronics to woodworking. These courses help the students to be successful in the working world.

DOE

Mrs. Dietz offers help to Brian in DOE theory.

The Diversified Occuptianal Education at THS involves 31 seniors. They attend school in the morning and are employed for the remainder of the day. One of their classes involves career study, and money management. Mrs. Dietz instructs this program and advises the DOE students.

HOW TO

VO - TECH

That's called togetherness!

Vo - Tech is a place in which many students prepare themselves for their futures in the busy society of today. The students work very hard, but the dividends are well worth it.

Is that an "a" or an "e"?

Don't cut yourself!

Anne prepares a cake fit for a king.

Are you sticking your tongue out, Janet?

MUSIC

Mr. Weaver instructs music students. He also directs the concert, marching, and pep bands. He is very involved in our school's music program.

Miss Wolfe teaches 9th grade music. She directs our chorus and Sedecim. We are very proud of her great musical abilities.

Both the band and the chorus work very hard in the preparation of our winter and spring concerts. The audience enjoys both performances. Members of the chorus enjoy singing and learn to appreciate music during the time devoted to the chorus each week. Band members also practice marching for the parades in which they are involved.

You're supposed to be singing.

LIBRARY

Mr. Bentz, the librarian at Tulpehocken High School, is noted for a quiet and orderly library.

The library provides students with a quiet atmosphere and supplies information and reading entertainment of all types.

ART

Mrs. Balthaser teaches art and various drafting courses. Her artistic abilities are helpful to the students.

Mrs. Balthaser instructs art classes. Students are offered a large variety of courses. They are: pottery, drawing and design, creative crafts, fibre arts, painting, graphic arts, mechanical drafting, and architectural drafting. Mrs. Balthaser also assists dance decorating.

DRIVER EDUCATION

Mr. Schaeffer teaches driver education and instructs some physical education classes.

Mr. Price teaches driver education. In addition he coaches the baseball team.

Driver education instructors are teaching students how to drive safely. Classroom teaching of driving principles, as well as practical applications of these principles, are part of the course. Such a job requires patience, quick reflexes, and some intestinal fortitude. A lot of strong coffee doesn't hurt, either.

HEALTH

Personal aspects of health, drugs and first aid are covered in ninth grade. In following years, topics include smoking, alcohol, and psychological health problems.

Miss Mohn is the girls' gym instructor and teaches ninth grade health classes.

Mr. Schaeffer teaches health courses to some of the tenth grade sections.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Mr. Wolf teaches Boys' Physical Education classes. He also advises the Gym Leaders, and coaches the soccer team.

Physical Education is a major part in every person's life. At THS they believe in good physical fitness through various new games. Everyone looks forward to exciting gym classes throughout the week.

Look out Tracey!

Pass it, Mark!

COOKS

Providing meals for the students of Tulpehocken High School requires a hard - working staff of cooks. The variety of nutritious, hot meals supplies the strength to make it through the rest of the grueling day. Although students occasionally joke about the quality of the cuisine — for fifty cents, who can complain?

NURSES

Mrs. Haag is administering a T. B. test.

Hopefully, you will never have to visit this office, but if you must, you will find someone who would like to help, whether it is just a small cut or a broken bone! The medical staff also provides physical examinations for students going out for sports.

Mrs. Palmer is checking the eye chart.

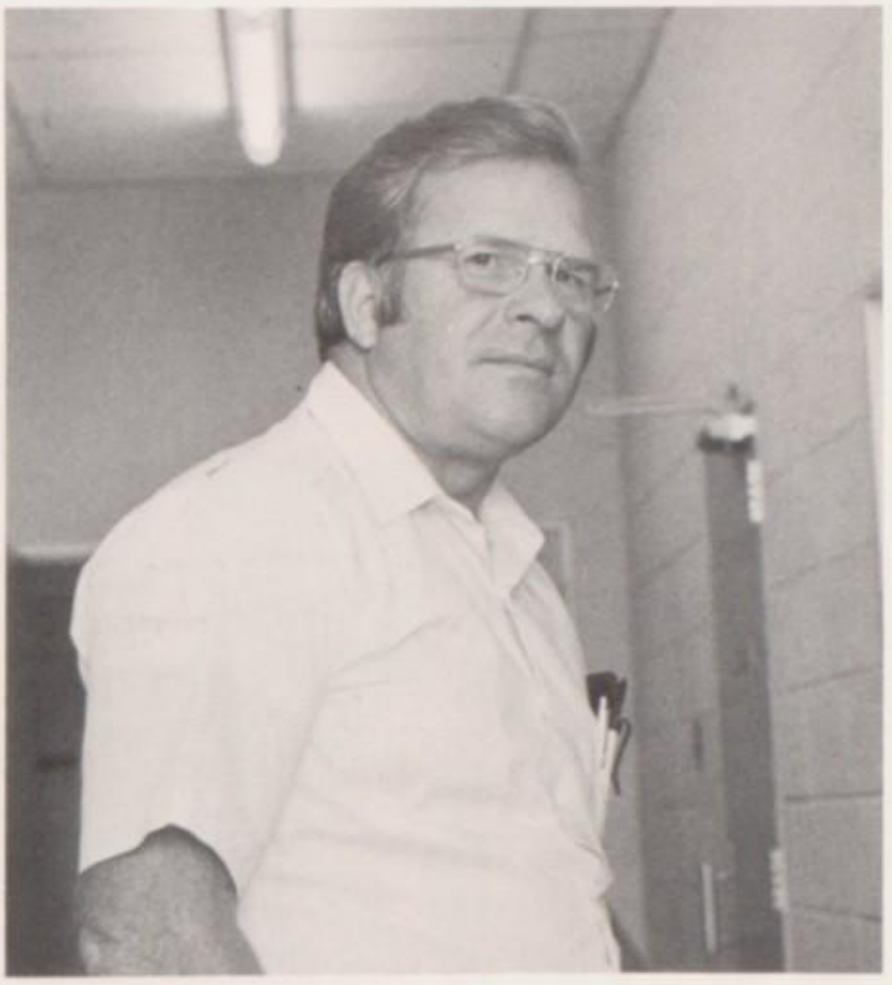
BUS DRIVERS

Kneeling: C. Zellers, W. Stoudt, H. Bashore. Standing: R. Ziegler, E. Bashore, G. Strunk, Y. Stoudt, M. Bashore, J. Mengel, Q. Gettel.

Driving a bus requires someone who can take students safely through all kinds of weather, and be willing to sacrifice his time for the school. Drivers are not only needed to take students to and from school, but also to drive for many athletic events, field trips, and other special events.

CUSTODIANS

E. Staller enjoys the spotlight.



G. Bashore is the building supervisor.

M. Bashore fixes the lights.

The most work R. Himmelberger ever does?

W. Brush, L. Kramer, and K. Brush are students who really work for their school.

When all the students have gone home and the classrooms are silent, the custodians can be found cleaning the school. Even during school, someone is making sure everything is sanitary. Three students, Karen Brush, Wendy Brush, and Lori Kramer, also help keep everything tidy as part of the CETA program. The entire team is led by George Bashore, the building supervisor.

Double Vision

The best ever! The Western Division Championship battle was fought and won. The season of '79 was a success. Coach Price and boys' baseball team were pleased. With athletic expertise such as 1979 proved, the 1980 season will achieve county standards or better!

Field event records were set and all running events were records because of the change from English to metric. Because there were only two seniors on this year's team, the girls are looking forward to a great season next year.

1979 Girls' Cross - Country Team

This year's cross - country team was one of the largest ever for Tulpehocken. For the first time the team enjoyed victories over Oley Valley and Holy Name. Seven members also competed in the county conference meet at the Berks Vo - Tech school. Next year looks to be a year of recruiting and rebuilding since 9 of the 11 members were seniors.

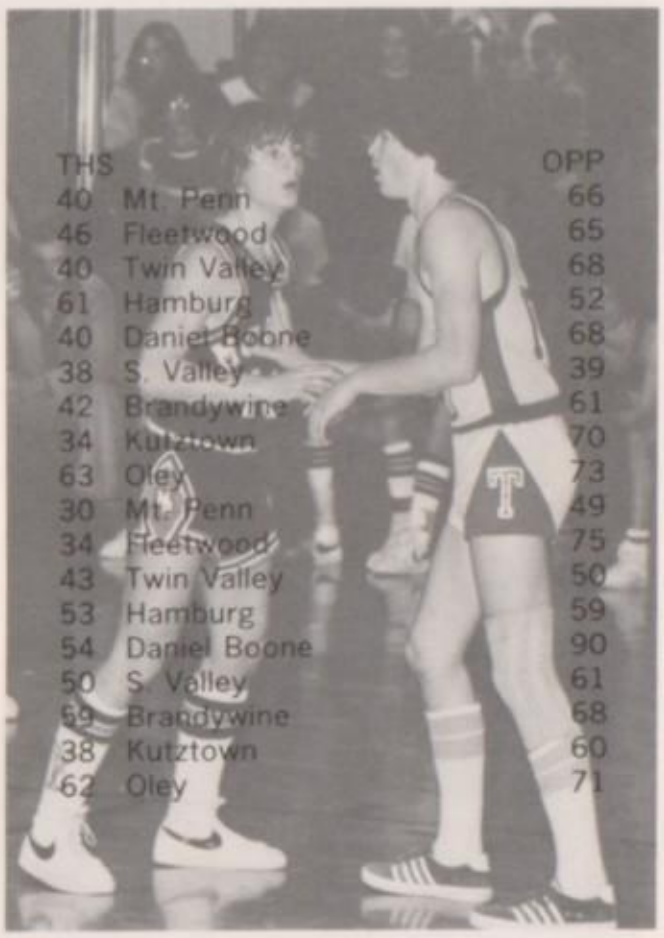
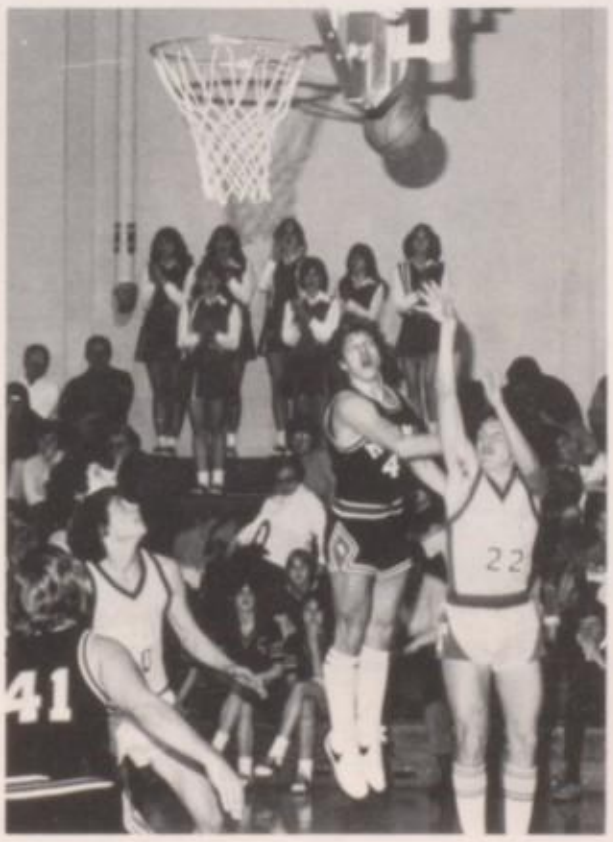
Seniors

Statisticians and Managers: L. Dieffenbach, J. Boyer, R. Gross, and B. Ruth.





This year's boys' basketball team finished with a 1-21 record. The team improved greatly as the season progressed. There was also a noticeable improvement in the individual skills of the players by the end of the season. The highlights of the season was the 62-53 victory over Hamburg. This year's team consisted of two sophomores, five juniors, and six seniors. Seven returning lettermen from this year's squad will furnish a strong nucleus for next year's season.

The 1979-80 varsity girls' basketball team consisted of six seniors and five juniors. They played to the best record in the school's history for a five-girl squad. In achieving this record they qualified for the District III playoffs. This was the first time a girls' team was ever entered. By maintaining an overall 500 season (11-11), they were awarded this goal. The team's future looks very bright since it will benefit from the experience of the juniors and the upcoming of many talented sophomores.

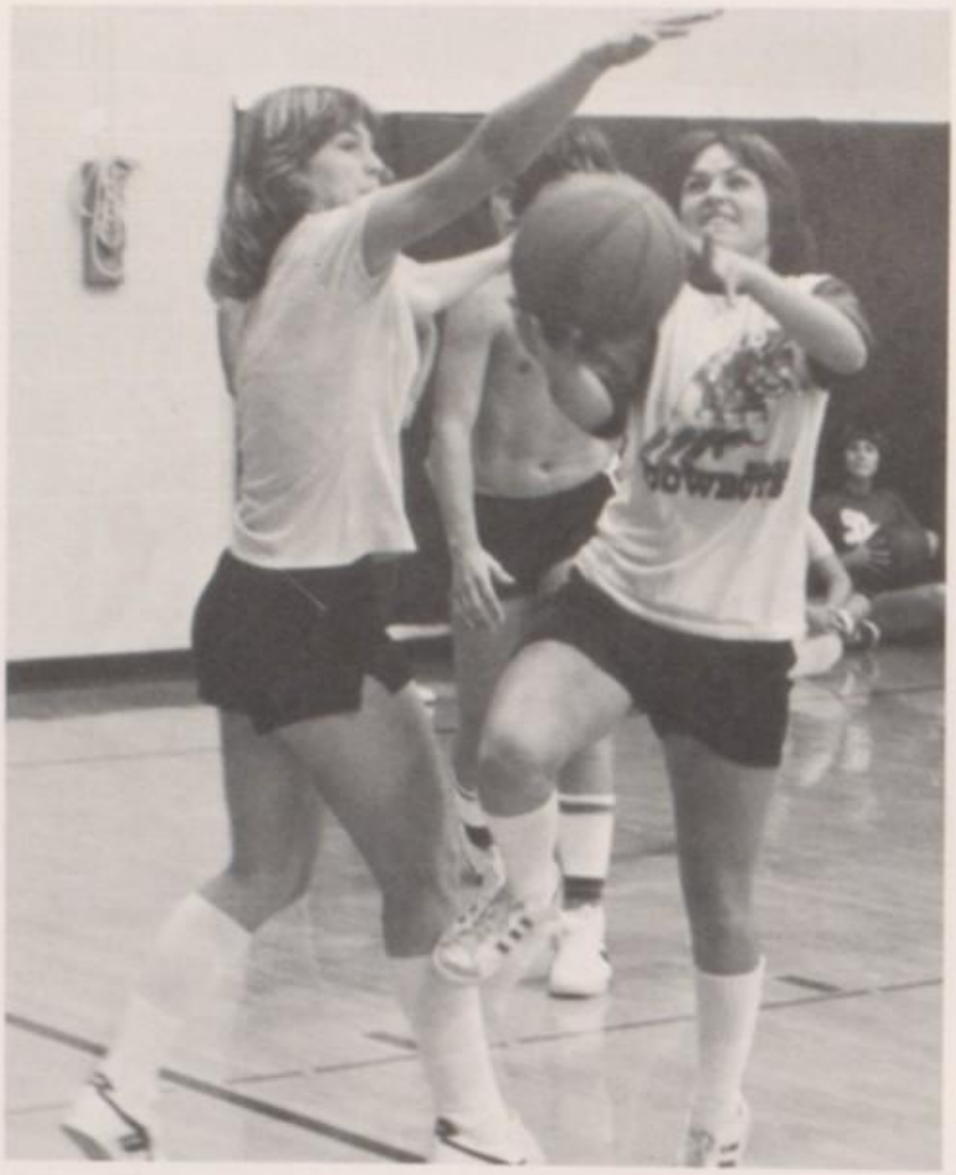
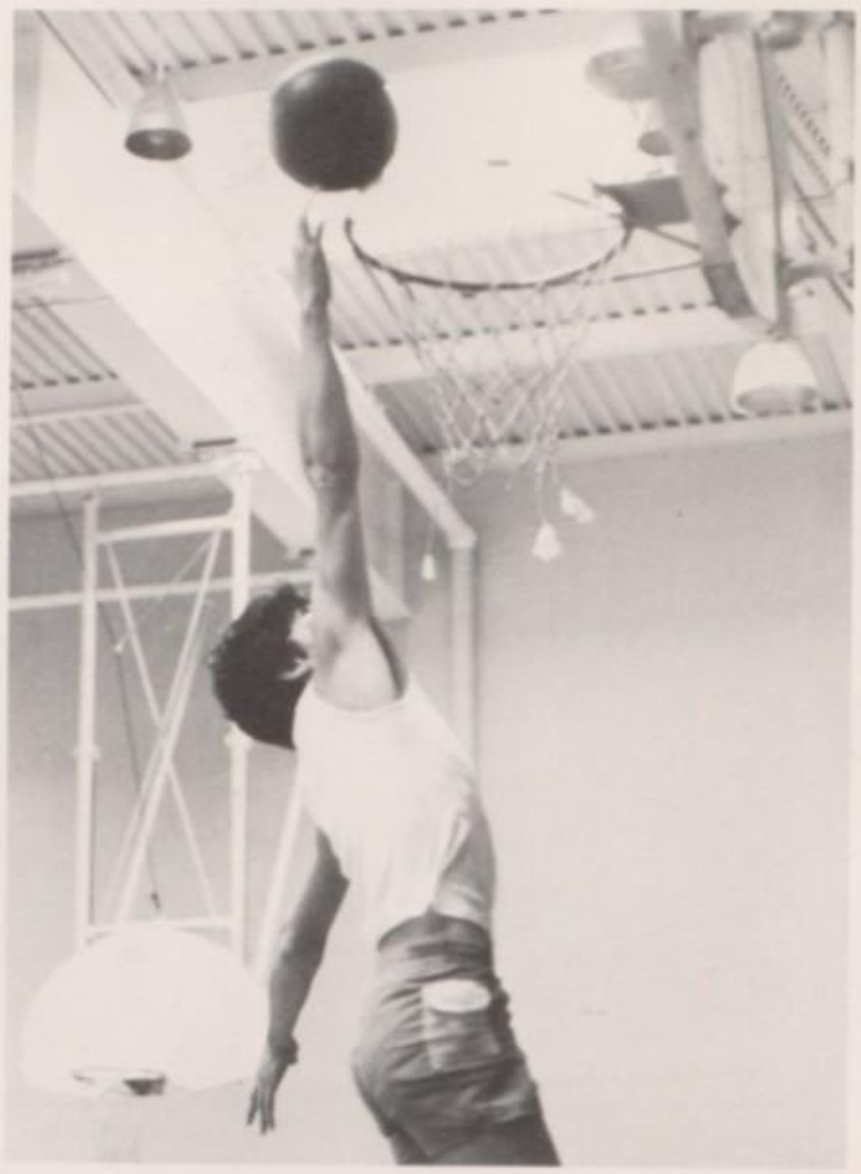
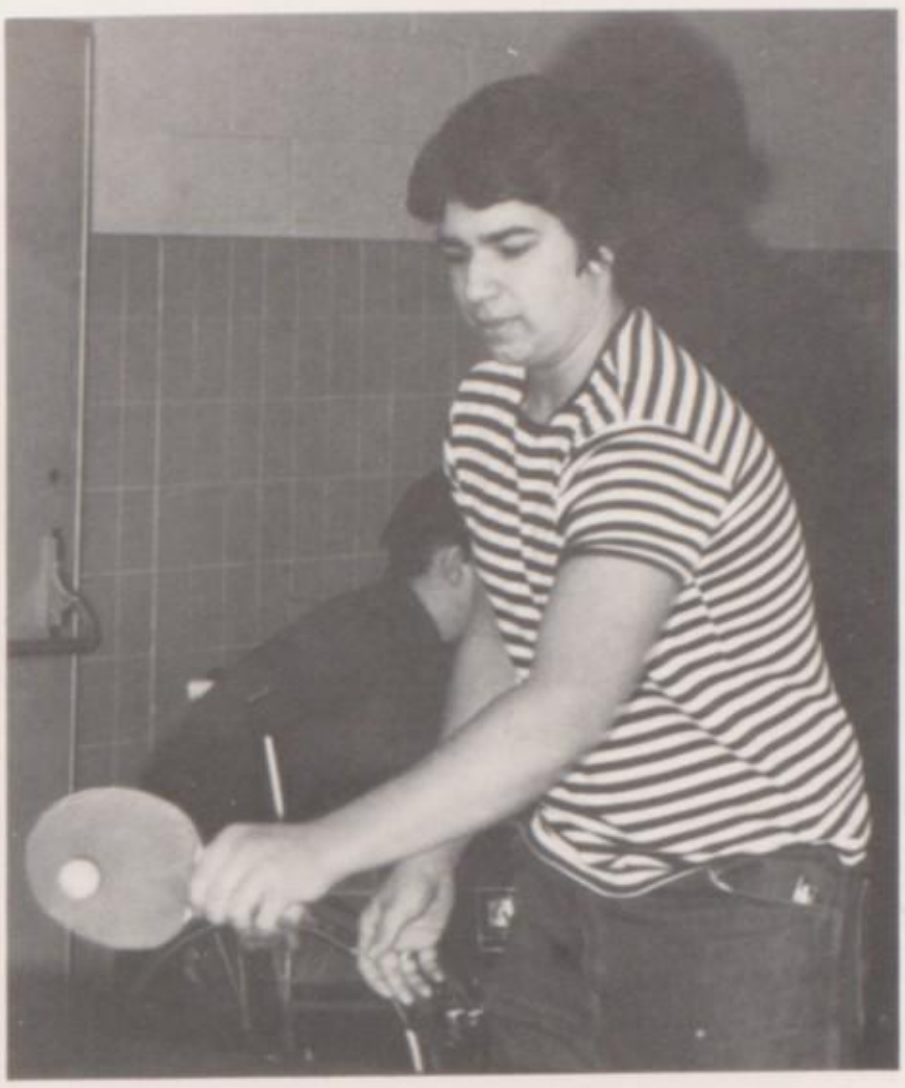
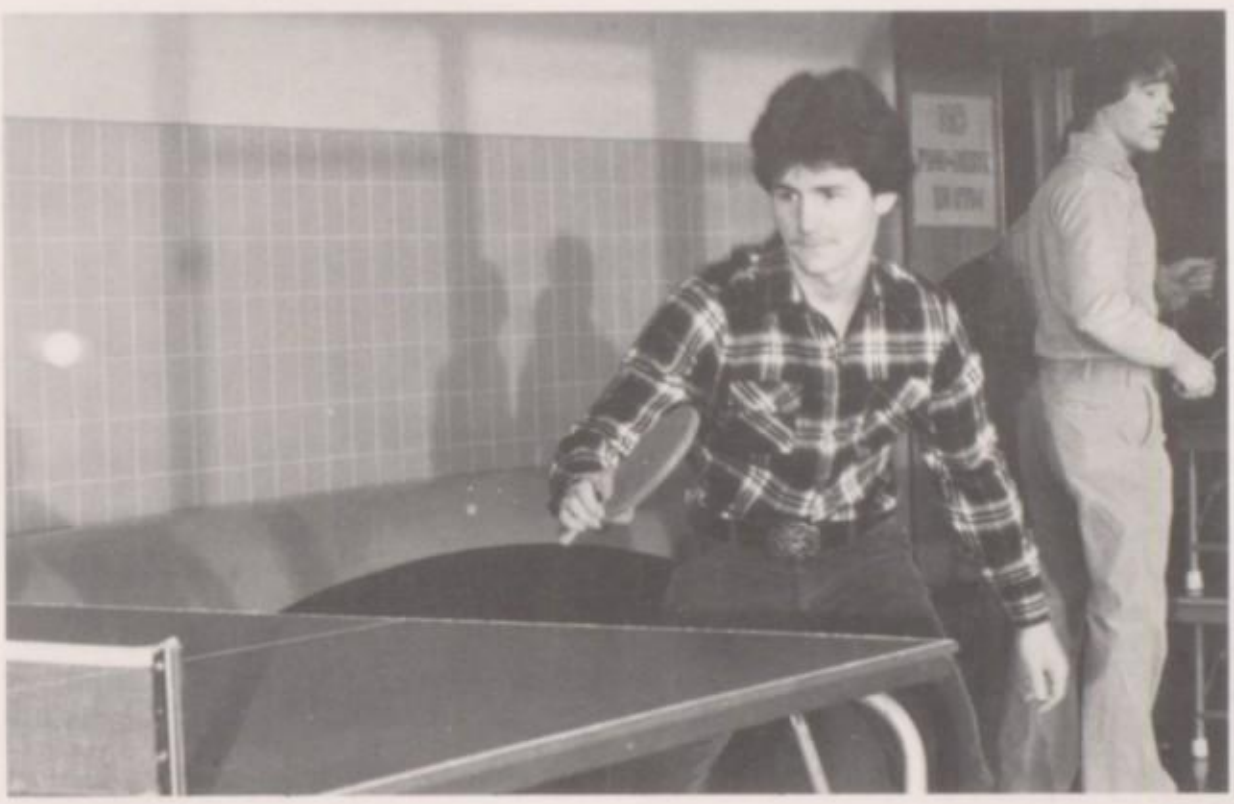
INTRAMURALS





A. Reinhart, our reigning ping-pong champion, won the singles tournament at THS.





Intramural sports are open to all students. This newly-instituted activity includes basketball, ping-pong, and soccer. Intramural sports, held after school and on Saturdays, let the students improve their skills and have fun at the same time. Hopefully, next year the intramural program will continue to develop and expand so that more students can have the opportunity to benefit from the various athletic activities.

Through much work and dedication one summit has been reached, but only with continual support from our advisors, Miss Mildred Kline and Mr. Sterling Hoffman. We would like to extend our sincere thanks to Mr. Andy Santora, American Yearbook representative, and Mr. William Uhler and Mr. Robert Kieffer of the Uhler Studio. The faculty, administration, and student body are also gratefully commended for their cooperation during our climb. Now, as we look forward to new goals, we come to appreciate more the people who have helped us reach this point in our struggle to success.
